Motion Argued to Quasis Infor mation Against Vec Yen.

A WRIT OF HABBAS CORPUS.

C. J. O. Irwin Sues the City to Re-with embensiement was argued in Judge Norrell's court yesterday by At-torney George F. Goodwin on behalf of Yen and by Assistant County Attorney Yen and by Assistant County Attorney Putnam for the state, after which his honor took it under advisement.

Judge Goodwin contended that defendant had not been bound over by a committing magistrate for the offense now charged in the information. The charge in the lower court being that he was a banker and that he received the money as such and that in this court he is charged simply as an agent. He furthermore said that the constitution and the statutes of this state require that the defendant shall have been held to answer the exact offense for which he is informed against in the district court.

Attorney Phinam in answering said
